

Symposium on Disability, Technology and Rehabilitation in Low and Middle Income Countries

ENSURING THE RIGHT TO FULL AND EFFECTIVE PARTICIPATION FOR PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

June 27th & 28th, 2013

Lyceum Room at the Husky Union Building, Seattle Campus
University of Washington, Seattle, Washington, USA

To register, visit <http://idtr.uwctds.washington.edu/workshops/2013>

The symposium will bring together leading researchers and practitioners who focus on improving and increasing access to appropriate technology and rehabilitation products and services in low and middle income countries. Participate in person or through a live webcast.

SYMPOSIUM THEMES:

- Assistive technology and accessible information and communication technology
- Service delivery models
- Human resource development
- Policy, regulatory and funding mechanisms for supporting provision of technology and rehabilitation
- Research and evidence-based practice

Keynote speaker:

Chapal Khasnabis, World Health Organization

Co-chairs: Mark Harniss & Becky Matter

Co-hosted by the Department of Rehabilitation Medicine and the Center for Technology and Disability Studies at the University of Washington

Email idtr@u.washington.edu for more information.